

VISUAL COMMUNICATIONS SUPPORT COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT SUPPORT

We are curious learners, change-makers and future ancestors. We nurture each other as we mutually nurture our communities and the conditions for systems change. We are hungry for creativity, and not afraid to get to work since we are driven by purpose, excellence, and a mission to see our island home thrive.

I believe in catalyzing Hawai'i's creative industry and unleveling all of us.

The challenges are great and work is needed!

Seeding our future ancestors. Special preference is given to emerging professionals with connection to the communities we serve.

About the work

Seeking creatives who are the right match in personality, skillset, and style. Open to a range of ability and experience: recent grad (or a soon to be recent grad) with 0 – 2 years of work experience. (If you are an emerging or mid-level creative, please reach out about sub-contract opportunities to work with the team!) You are an independent thinker and creative problem solver keen to support community empowerment. You have fresh ideas, a unique perspective, and a curiosity for life coupled with the willingness to follow through, and execute with care. You are committed to creative excellence.

Summary of the key skillsets needed and experience you will gain; the degree of involvement and assistance is relative to your ability and experience.

Written skills and visual design skills for content creation (which may include photo editing, photo illustration, vector illustration and drawing, layout design, creative conceiving)

Research, development, info-gathering and planning

Co-creation and collaboration

Events coordination

Organization

Connection, connecting, relationship building

Experience with Adobe Creative Suite > Illustrator, Photoshop, In Design. A basic understanding of HTML. Advanced skills beyond this a plus, including an interest in video and motion.

Contribute news learned about larger worlds of design, technology, user interface, branding, marketing, new media,

Be hungry to work, courageous to learn, curious, flexible, innovative in thinking, and ability to pivot.

Assist with marketing and research for Stephanie Chang Design Ink.

Position is:

Part time, 10 – 20 hours/week. Possibly some in-person time together at the kaimuki office + additional hours working remotely. Parking is free. Great mentorship, and growing opportunities.

You need your own computer, a reliable internet connection, and to be reachable via phone.

About the Company

Stephanie Chang Design Ink offers visual communications and convenings for community-led transformation. We are intentional about conveying information in ways that are meaningful to people. Dynamic visual design, content design, and engagement design grounded in sense of place make meaning and build connection ultimately to support community kuleana, equity infrastructure and actions of stewardship.

We produce dynamic content and messaging, facilitation of community and participatory processes, and award winning visual communications: website design and development; brand identity consulting and creation; and infographics for Hawai'i organizations devoted to sustainability and community.

www.stephanieink.com

Applying for the position

Please submit your interest and materials for the position. Please email sc@stephanieink.com. Please use the subject heading: Working with SCDI

Please email a cover letter (explaining why you might be a good fit for the job), your resume, and samples of work from your portfolio. (It can be a link to your website, and/or links to viewing samples of your work, and/or a PDF file of your work). Please send your best work only, though I am interested in seeing the breadth of your work as well.